The session offered a good opportunity to network with other leaders at different organizations and industries.
The training helped me learn more about myself.
The documentation provided was useful (white paper, participant's manual, job aid, playbook).
The personality inventory (BEST ² Assessment™) results were accurate for me.
The dodgeball activities helped bring business challenges and opportunities to life.
I have a plan of action for how I will use the course information when I return to work.
I would recommend this session to others.

The most valuable aspect of this session was:

One thing I would recommend be changed to the session is _____: (please explain)
